Travel expenses / driving costs for an outcall on request

Travel expenses will be calculated depending on distance and the required time for traveling.

Furthermore the time spend for traveling has to correspond with the duration of an appointment. I might also ask for a compensation for parking fees or road usage charge.

PAYMENT

For an appointment you can either pay cash (EUR, CHF, USD only), by PayPal or bank transfer.

- For a first time appointment (we don't know each other) a deposit* via PayPal (fast and recommended) or bank transfer (needs maybe several days) is required! The remaining amount can be paid cash.
- For longer-distance outcalls and/or for requests between 11pm to 10am my service has to be paid in advance completely.

I have to ask for a deposit for a first time appointment because ruthlessness appears to become an acceptable trait to a substantial number of people. I do apologize for this inconvenience to any reliable guest with honest intentions who firmly wants to book an appointment.

As nobody wants to transfer money to an unknown person, I invite you for a call to get a personal impression. On every PayPal transaction I use my full name, which is identical to my name in the imprint.

 If I have to cancel an already paid appointment, you'll get your money back immediately or you can reschedule it according your preference.

If YOU cancel a firmly booked and already paid appointment, you can reschedule it (once, not several times) within the next three months. There will be no refunding of already paid amounts. Whenever there is a no show without cancellation or no rescheduling within three months, already paid amounts expire.

HOW TO HAVE A SATISFYING APPOINTMENT:

Making a reservation in time

I try to do my best, if I get a spontaneous request. But terms like "available now" make no sense when asking for an appointment. I'm no emergency. Instead I want to spend pleasurable hours together with you.

Discretion guaranteed

Please be open and honest when arranging an appointment – especially when asking for a hotel outcall. Wrong data and names have often a ridiculous effect and may cause unwanted attention.

Don't confuse discretion with anonymity. Discretion means I won't share your data (name, address, phone number etc.) with anyone else. Furthermore I will never tell anybody anything about our appointment and what happened between us.

Politeness is a good idea

Some men unfortunately forget their good manners when asking for an appointment – maybe because of nervousness or out of fear from indiscretions. A phone call (also an e-mail) should begin with a "hello" followed by the introduction of the name – rather than "are you available now?" or "what's your rate?". Otherwise one will be seen as a caveman without any education. I guess nobody wants to appear in this light.

... and now I'm looking forward to talk to you on the phone and making your acquaintance soon 😊 Phone: +49 175 749 2882
